Much fun was in evidence as our meeting progressed. Bruce Lilly told us about the fun and boisterous convention he and Victor Barone attended with the Key Club in Sacramento.

Mary Grace Lewis is running for an International office plus other awards were taken home. The tee shirt has the new hashtag, I Am Kiwanis.

Our invocation was led by Edsel Curry whom was especially happy to be with us this week.

Jackie Jones led us in the flag salute.

Meals to Seniors were delivered by Chuck Stuart and Marsha Jackson. Special Thanks for the service.

Guests

We enjoyed the company of Kathy Curry, joining husband Edsel, Marybel Russell, helper, Kellie Lupe Smith, hypnotherapist, Kendall Flint and George La Porte, speakers, and Key Clubbers Stephanie, Grisela, Michelle, and Betsy. (Edsel and Kathy will be pictured under anniversaries.)

Anniversaries

Edsel and Kathy Curry have been married for 67 years. They take great joy in their relationship and enjoy their children, grandchildren, and 5 great grandchildren.

On the Spot---Nancy Serpa's name was listed

Pen a Friend

Wally plays a big part on the Gala Committee and penned Lisa Malm for all of the help she has given us on the gala and also for her role in leadership in the club. Lisa had the idea of the unique table decorations and was helpful in all areas of the gala. Thanks, Lisa.

Our club received the "Round Robin Badge" from CalNevHa for our excellent job of visiting all of the clubs in Division 16. Dave Harris took the badge to sew it on our banner. 2014-2015

Friends of the Peek family have been sending in funds toward our club in respect for Marcy's love of Kiwanis and her close relationship with Cynthia. Thank you letters will be sent out.

Gary Peterson announced the next meeting of the Gala Comm. will be on April 18. Luis Centeno has produced a beautiful brochure and new price sheet to be used when contacting businesses and friends to donate to the Gala and for the Gala program.

Diane Cripe suggested that there be a cheering section for Kiwanis at the B O P. She also wants us to find a way to honor Nikki Penrod at Relay for Life. The visit to the French School turned out well because the Key Clubbers had great camaraderie with the students and many students at the school signed up showing interest in starting a club.

Cathy Hutt made name labels about our new members for us to put into our rosters. Thanks, Cathy.

Kiwanitas The May 4th meeting will be at Claim Jumpers.

Be sure you have the new names for your roster.

Remember on April 22 the Burbank Sunrise Club needs your volunteer help starting at about 7 a.m. Boys and Girls Club receive funds from the event.

Happy, Sad, and Sometimes Stupid Dollars

Elizabeth and Steve V. are heading to New Zealand for 2 weeks to see children and grandchildren. Such a look, Steve. It may be a long trip, but the end is worth it.

Kathy Curry celebrated her 88th birthday.

Sam wants to make sure we all bring our rosters.

Hannah is moving and will donate for Eliminate

Ryan Curry is working out of town.

Charlotte and friends went to Cicada Club for Johnny's appearance with Johnny Holliday.

Hazel is happy she was appreciated by Johnny Joe T told us that Keller Williams has moved location'

Bruce, Sacramento did not rain on Key Club

Juan G. has tickets for veterans for Fiesta of the Horse on April 30 at Equestrian Center.

Guest Speaker

Kendall Flint joined us as speaker on Single Family Residence Standards. Kendall suggested that members take a walk around neighborhoods and look for what they like about the homes and let the planning dept. know of their preferences so standards can be set. Dennis Dunn was the winner.....AGAIN!
