meeting today.
The students
were well
planned, fun,
and had

decorated the room with colorful tablecloths, balloons, and crepe paper. They had rocking music, and I don’t mean in a rocking chair.
Members were up dancing and enjoying the camaraderie. Just ask Hazel!

Please forgive the editor is all the pictures do not match the correct names.

Mary Grace led
the invocation.
She is running for international office. We are proud of how she led the group as lieutenant gov.

A patriotic tune
was played by Curie Hong after
the flag salute and
we heard the beautiful voices of the “Sirens” of N’Sync as they sang the National Anthem.

Guests We welcomed Jeanette Mena from the Santa Clarita Kiwanis Club and Kellie Lupe-Smith invited by Charissa Wheeler. Eric Deroian was with us and has turned in his papers to become a member.

Leadership Speaker, Key Club Officers

Kiwinatas-had a lovely luncheon on May 4 at Claim Jumpers. It is the last for the summer.

for prizes.

Current Lieutenant Governor, Diane Cripe won the auction for the golden cape. Then she proceeded to fine 4 people because the cape gave her special rights.

DCON Announcements

Daniel Park talked to members about the recent convention the leaders attended. Dr. Lilly and his wife and also Victor Barone attended the conference.

HOW DO YOU FEEL?

This hand forged key was auctioned off and won by Dr. Lilly.

CELEBRATION OF VICTORY IN PARADE

Our Own Steve, the Wonder.....But he does open his wallet as well as his mouth.

Our club won first place in the novelty float, civic competition. Nori ran an amazing committee. Thanks to all who participated.

The Key Club auctioned off a beautiful golden cape made by Mrs. Gaspar, a hand forged key, and plastic glasses were used as prizes for the games. There were even packages of popcorn

In an appropriate ballet pose, Dr. Lilly had a winning number.

We were all winners at the fun meeting with Key Club.
