SPOTLIGHT

Volume 93

www.BurbankKiwanis.org

Charles Chavoor, President Designate, opened the well planned meeting with special thanks to all who worked on the K1 Day project. The Y is sending pictures to various news outlets to let the public know of the success of the day.

Michael Parenteau read an article from Albert Einstein about learning from yesterday. Excellent. Dennis Dunn led us in the flag salute.

Senior meals were delivered by Rick Marias and Ian Fagan. Thanks for bringing smiles and food to the shut ins.

Guests

We enjoyed the company of guests Gena Merrill who works with Steve Oakley, Reza Zhang, and Ella Hambarchian, both friends of Harvey Branman, and many Key Clubbers. We welcome all to find out about our service to others.

On the Spot—won by Hazel

Pen a Friend-

Nori Walla penned Wally Kendig for always welcoming others with a big smile when they enter the room, his work with the gala, and his always helping in all of our projects. Congratulations, Wally. Now whom will Wally honor???

Committee Reports

Bruce Lilly and Victor Barone are attending the CalNevHa conference for Key Clubs. They are also taking the Key Club advisor, Frank Barberia, with them. We look forward to a report of the fun times and the information they learn. We hear it is a time of much excitement and noise. Special thanks for their youth involvement.

Diane Cripe announced the International School of Los Angeles, that we call the French School, is having a volunteer fair where we have been asked to share our information on Builders Clubs and Key Clubs, 9:30 a.m., on April 12.

Sunrise Kiwanis is having the Mayor's Cup Golf Tournament on April 22 and is looking for volunteers. Our club has voted to sponsor a flag at one of the holes. Consider helping out. Boys and Girls Club of Burbank is a big recipient of the funds generated.

Special thanks to JCHolt and Bob Archer for working with Cynthia to complete the upgrade of our By Laws. Copies will be made available for those who want to read them over. Just ask Cynthia.

Word has been received about the passing of 96 year old Dr. Richard Kasper, former president of the club. Services are on April 30, 10 a.m., Mariner's Church in the Chapel, 5001 Newport Coast Dr., Irvine.

Kiwanitas The May 4th meeting will be at Claim Jumpers.

Trustee, Ron Rothacher announced that openings are available for members wanting to run for Board of Trustees as well as Vice President. Learn about the club by becoming a Board member and attending a meeting, the first Tuesday of each month. Let Ron know of your interest.

We need you.

Trivia Challenge. Our team lasted for quite a while. We were very proud of their knowledge. Special thanks to Sam Engel, Sr., and Tom Cotrel. Special mention was made in the program of Millie Engel's work with Friends of the Library.

Special thanks to Gilbert and his family for our meals that he prepares every week. We serve an average of 51 meals a week.

Birthday Men

Happy Birthday to Sam, Wally, Ian, Harvey, and Don.

Guest Speaker

Charissa Wheeler was an outstanding speaker and shared her musical talent with us.
