www.BurbankKiwaniis.org

Ron Rothacher says he has a history of Kiwanis and the Burbank Club. We need the info for our new notebook required by International.

Welcome to Burbank Noon Kiwanis. Cynthia Faust, outgoing president led the meeting today after discovering her gavel was missing again. Fortunately someone saw the perpetrator and was willing to be bought out. Your seldom fining president fined Dr. Bruce Lilly for stealing the gavel. It took a while to find it but all ended well and the club made $5.

Diane Cripe led us in the invocation and Lisa Malm in the pledge. Sam Engel, Sr. led as Charissa Wheeler played for the patriotic song, "My Country 'Tis of Thee" Great team.

Guest pictures on first page, Sharon Terranova, Samuel Osbourne from Australia, Kathy Hoxsie, Kiwanian from up north, Hasmik Vrtanesyan, Key Clubbers, and soon to be member, Pam Corradi.

We were happy to see members Dave Harris, secretary and Lis Malm, upcoming 1st vice president.

Anniversaries

Joe and Sharon Terranova celebrated their 52 wedding anniversary with us. Their secret is don't disagree much and keep a a happy wife. Right?

Announcements

Diane Cripe, Lieutenant Governor and Marsha Jackson are having a BBQ party, no charge, at Marsha's on September 18 from 3-6 p.m. This will take the place of the Sept DCM.

Also remember that there will be a Governor's luncheon on Oct. 2 where Diane will be de-installed and Jesus Ochoa will be installed as 2016-2017 Lieutenant Governor.

Charissa Wheeler told us about all the is being done in the community to market the Burbank Singing Stars contest. Flyers have been counted out and delivered to all the elementary schools and middle schools. There are flyers sitting at the check in for the district and are also at the La Prov Thrift Shop.

Rebecca Gasper told us about the Key Club honoring Mary Grace Lewis for her Vice President of International win. The Key Club also held a skating fundraiser at Pickwick. Juan Guillen dropped by and can give you an update on the afternoon.

Meals for seniors were delivered by Ron Rothacher and Rommil Fernandez.

Hazel Schrefel is collecting bottles and cans for Eliminate. Please save and either bring to the meeting, by the store, or by their home. Her last trip made us over $60 for Eliminate. Hazel, you are a recycling wonder!

PEN A FRIEND

it is difficult to choose with so many great members, but Kellie's help for the firemen and also her stepping up to be Interclub Chair earned her a Kiwanis pen. Who will be next?

The trustee meeting is on Sept. 17, 9 a.m.-1 p.m.

The Boy Scout Big Strike Auction is on Sept. 10.

Gary Peterson is in charge of September speakers. He would appreciate help in finding speakers for the month. Remember we are dark on Sept. 21, but we do have an interclub to La Canada planned and the volunteer fair at Joslyn Center.

Happy and Sad Dollars

Lisa happy about vacation and returning home. Nicole was happy about spending time at Camp Fox.

Diane was happy that Roxanne is recovering and walking but will need more surgery.

Guest Speaker

Patrick Prescott, Community Development Director for the city talked to us about current projects and special housing needs for Burbank.
