SPOTLIGHT

Volume 93

www.BurbankKiwanis.org

Kiwanis Club of Burbank was founded in 1922. If anyone has anything in writing or stories about our history, please give to Cynthia for writing an International required handbook

Aug.11-13, CalNevHa District Convention, Las Vegas Marriott
September 22, installation of Charles Chavoor

Welcome to Burbank Noon Kiwanis.

Vice President Chuck Chavoor led the meeting today with the new gavel supplied by Steve Oakley. Thanks, Steve. We are sorry your opportunity ticket didn't win.

Gary Peterson led us in the invocation and also took some time to discuss workers for loading the trucks with the silent auction items and the table decorations as well as those needed for set up and tear down.

Nori Walla came flying in from delivering meals to seniors in time to lead us in the flag salute. Nori was responsible for the great Jeopardy style Kiwanis questions and answers that were seen above the opportunity tickets. The speakers commented on the questions and the great answer of "We Are Kiwanis".

Meals were delivered by Peter Genovese and Nori Walla. Thanks for the service. Be sure to sign up with Cathy Hutt. If you are a new member, you will need to be fingerprinted.

LUIS Centeno celebrated his birthday with us. We were happy to sing to our new 2nd vice president. Luis has made our website an amazing place for information, sponsors, viewing the Spotlight, and just plain fun. Thanks and Happy Birthday.

On the Spot today was Rick Marias. Cynthia had looked it up and won a ticket for knowing. Be sure to check our website each week and look for On the Spot.

The Toluca ran a full page ad for us about the gala. Read it if you get a chance. We actually had people call us as a result of the ad.

We enjoyed the company of Mary Grace Lewis, Daniel Park, Alyssa Dancel, and Louise Panaligan who came to thank us for our support in attending the International Convention. Their talks were inspiring and from the heart.

Kelli Lupe-Smith fulfilled her requirements to receive her permanent badge from Chuck. Kelli has stepped up and is going to be the interclub chair. Tonight is the DCM and there should be an interclub. Dave Harris or Harvey will explain what needs to be done with the information.

Our GALA was an amazing success. Alex Trebek was entertaining and 5 lucky people will each take home $1000. Our Lt. Gov., Diane Cripe won $2000. Sounds like a fine is coming up. What do you think?

Jimmy Weldon and Charissa Wheeler opened the evening with the story of the flag and “God Bless America”.

Johnny Holiday (Scott Ables) was the MC for the program. Marsha presented $5000 to Alex Trebek to be given to the Campbell Center in Glendale for helping developmentally disabled adults.

Alex Trebek was an excellent speaker with part serious talk and part funny jabs at the ends of serious. Charming.

Evan Malm did a great job as auctioneer. He had many great things to auction off, including an Indonesian beauty in all of her glory on canvas by a famous artist, donated by Richard and Nancy White. Steve Oakley bought it. Will he use it at work???

Don't forget the 5-7:30 get together at the Pickwick. Make sure you RSVP. It will be a fun time to see the gardens and talk about the gala and all the fun we had.

Guest Speaker

Our energetic guest speaker for the day was Jeanette Meyer, marketing manager for Burbank Water and Power. Jeanette asked us questions and handed out goodies from the city as a reward. She discussed solar, shade trees handed out, water use, how many times you flush the toilet, and even a low income plan. There is a magazine called CURRENTS provided by the city and a twitter account followed by 1,626 people. There are different systems for recycled water for large businesses. It was a quick, thoughtful presentation by a skilled speaker.
