2nd VP Luis called the meeting to order at 12:30 PM. Linda offered the invocation and Sally lead the pledge. We all sang ‘My Country ‘Tis of Thee’, as Sam, Sr. played and Romelle lead. We shook hands with someone who has already purchased tickets to the Burbank Singing Star event.

Sam, Sr. and Wally delivered 27 meals today to shut-ins.

Guests

Jeanie Edwards, program - Jane Berwick - Paul Albarian - Sam Osborne, BSS MC - Bob Frutos, candidate Burbank City Council – Sharon Springer, candidate Burbank City Council – Johnnie Crawford (Charlotte McKenna) and Jesselyn Desmond, BSS organizer.

Two birthdays today!!! Both Wally and Sam, Sr celebrated birthdays. Sam, Sr. turned 90 and says that it is his ‘swan song’ with ‘meals to shut-ins’. Sam, Jr. surprised us all with a fabulous cake for dessert. Wow! Sam – here’s to many more birthdays. Both birthday celebrants donated to the Foundation. And, many more birthdays to you as well, Wally – even though no cake.
No anniversaries

On The Spot: Peter knew it was Harvey. (note to all: best to check the website from Sunday night to the meeting) He got an extra ticket. See the next page to see who won the 50/50.

Announcements & Committee Reports

Sad news: Pres. Chuck is in the hospital with a curable bug. He is being inundated with antibiotics, because this is serious. (I think I heard that he expects to lead the meeting next week. Rest well, Chuck, and speedy recovery.

Easter Sunrise Service at Forest Lawn. Burbank Noon hosts donuts and coffee. Please sign up to help at the 5:30 service. A sign-up sheet was passed.

Cynthia addressed the attendees asking for volunteers to deliver flyers for the Burbank Singing Star event to the schools. Of course, volunteers stepped up.

2nd VP Luis announced that there is no official security this year and asked that Kiwanians to wear their shirts identifying them as authorities. He asked that we call 911 for professional help if there is trouble.

Linda came to the podium to let us know that she has forms for Luminaries, participants and other donors.

Bruce – ever the mischievous member - came forward to pay another fine, because he will miss the Burbank Singing Star. He will, instead, be having a great vacation with our Key Clubbers at their convention in Anaheim where they will be perfect ladies and gentlemen, quiet and orderly! Not so much! We sponsor 5 Key Clubs and 4 of them will attend the convention! Thank you, Bruce, for making that happen! You are truly a Burbank Noon Star!

Cathy noted that if the finger-printed individuals volunteered 3 times a year, we would be totally covered. Please sign up!

Charissa came forward again to request help for BSS. KPFK and an Armenian radio station are giving us air time.

Charlotte announced a fund-raiser- 'Laugh your Alz Off' for Alzheimer's through Glenpark Healthy Living. She thanked the Burbank Noon Board for their help after their meeting and noted that the members are a very generous group

Sam reminisced about people he knew on 'meals delivery today', and said that it is probably his 'swan song'.

Harvey introduced Jeanie Edwards who challenged us right 'off the bat' with who still has a chorded land line. She noted that Burbank is different from other cities that 911 goes to our dispatch.

She summarized that we should all:

1. Be aware
2. Have a plan, even inviting neighbors to be a part of that plan.
3. Stash a flashlight under your pillow and your flip/flops between your box spring and mattress.
4. Finally, involve the kids!

Nancy won the 50/50 and we all sang Hail Kiwanis.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:30PM

Some highlights from Burbank Singing Star - Winners, judges, demonstrators and opening dance. It was a SUPER day!!

We are very fortunate to have her speak to us, given what must be a constant workload, but we will have to adjust our normal agenda for this to happen. Accordingly, she will start her presentation at 12:15pm so we will have to be prepared to listen while eating unfortunately.'
