Luis Reported that the Burbankkiwanis.org site is up and running again. He explained about migrating to another server and company. All is well now. Watch for events and other information.

Stephen Veres reported on our loved member Dr. Rick Marias. Steve went to visit the family at Northridge Hospital on Monday and talked with Teri and the two children, David and Rachel. Thank you, Steve, for representing us. Steve also visited Joe Volkmar, a former member, who is ill and in hospice.

Jane Berwick read off the names of those who signed her apron. Sam challenged her on his name. Now Jane needs to complete the activities for new members' paper to receive her badge.

Lis Malm, Incoming president, talked to us about the Meet and Greet at the Heights on Aug. 31 at 6:30 p.m. Come and bring a guest.

Luis has prepared a new video showing our activities and spreading the word about Kiwanis Service. Bring as many guests as you would like.

Our installation dinner is on September 14 at Pickwick. $50. Please get your invitation RSVP in to Lisa and what you are going to eat. This evening is a wonderful beginning of a new term for a president and the board. Let's make it special.

Family Promise is having a breakfast for $10 at the VFW on Sept. 3, 8:30 -12:30.

The Empty Bowl fundraiser is on Oct. 15 in No. Hollywood. $35, 11:30-2:30p.m.

Kiwanitas - Next meeting is Wednesday, September 6th at Olive's Bistro at 11:30 AM. RSVP to Mary Dunn at dunnda@sbcglobal.net

Dr. Rick Marias, beloved member, passed away after a massive heart attack while jogging. His service was well attended and we learned all about this amazing man. He will be missed. Please keep his family in your prayers. Thanks to Steve Veres who helped the family plan the after service fellowship.

Sad Dollars, Happy Dollars

Lisa M. had a great vacation, is happy to be back.

Joe T. is sad about Rick.

Harvey is sad about Rick and appreciated how hard he worked loading the truck with bags.

Steve V told how Rick took care of dental needs of the Augustine family and others in need.

New member Caesar is happy and wants you to sign his apron.

Steve V. is happy that Joe Volkmar has a good caregiver.

Guest Speaker- Cynthia Faust

The meeting today was planned to think of ideas for galas for the coming years. We have enjoyed 20 years of amazing success with Marsha Jackson and her family. So as we move into the next 20 years, what will our galas look like??

The meeting was broken into three parts:

IDEA FACTORY 5 min. of discussion

STICKY NOTE SLAM one minute to jot ideas

POPCORN Those with star move to another table

Some of the ideas generated were:

Modify reverse drawing,; Entertainment, Change location, Play word bingo during evening, consider Warner Brothers venue, More help needed for set up and tear down, More use of social media, Use electronic sign at front, Have a person from each table call out numbers, Music playing during dinner, High School bands or choirs so parents will come to support them.

Our Values

The Kiwanis Mission

Kiwanis empowers communities to improve the world by making lasting differences in the lives of children.

The Kiwanis Vision

Kiwanis will be a positive influence in communities worldwide – so that one day, all children will wake up in communities that believe in them, nurture them and provide the support they need to thrive.

Celebrating and fostering inclusiveness

In 2008, delegates at the Kiwanis International convention adopted a resolution that encourages and empowers clubs to create environments that develop and nurture mutual respect for all, and to celebrate the inclusiveness of all Kiwanis members.

The Objects of Kiwanis

The six permanent Objects of Kiwanis International were approved by Kiwanis club delegates at the 1924 Convention in Denver, Colorado. Through the succeeding decades, they have remained unchanged.

- Object 1 - To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.
- Object 2 - To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
- Object 3 - To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.
- Object 4 - To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.
- Object 5 - To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.
- Object 6 - To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism and
